

112 HIGH RIDGE AVENUE, RIDGEFIELD

Welcome home to one of Ridgefield's ultimate hallmark properties, magnificently reinvented and designed by esteemed architect firm Brooks and Falotico. This impeccable circa 1939 masterpiece features infinite designer appointments showcasing a grand Center Hall staircase, arched doorways and intricate millwork. Gracious interior rooms are positioned to create a seamless flow that is highlighted by exceptional craftsmanship featuring three fireplaces, custom built-ins, charming window seats and treatments, Phillip Jeffries wallpaper, gleaming hardwood floors accented by natural light and scenic views of professionally manicured landscapes with captivating flowering gardens, an expansive stone patio with outdoor kitchen, stone fireplace, pergola, and heated Gunite pool. A magnificent front entry is embraced by stunning architectural details perfectly introducing the most remarkable dining room with fireplace, and sensational living room with mirrored TV above a second fireplace.
