

7 PAPERBARK PLACE, INVERLOCH

The first impression of this wonderful coastal home is the practical and stylish design elements that blend together to create an elegant and spacious living environment with room for the whole family. Ready to move in and enjoy straight away. There is a great sense of space in this modern open plan design that sees the highly functional kitchen with dishwasher and ample storage space overlook the expansive living and dining areas. The key aspects of the home are favoured by its northern orientation to the main living and entertaining deck giving the home warmth and natural light. Enjoy breakfast and morning coffees through to dinner and evening drinks on the large entertaining deck that is sure to delight overlooking that magnificent manicured garden on its generous block.
